

Water Polo Report

April 2022

British Water Polo League

The Lizards team finished as runners up in the Super 5 league.

The Liver Birds team finished third in Championship One after two more good results in Liverpool on the last weekend of the season.

The Water Beetles team did not qualify to get back into Division 3 for the first time in their history and we will need to consider the future of these players for next season.

SE u17/u19 Championships

The Liverpool u17 girl's team has qualified for the finals of the Swim England Youth Championship which is being staged here in Liverpool on the weekend of May 7/8th. The other teams in the finals are Sheffield, Cheltenham and Manchester.

The Liverpool u19 girl's team just missed out in their qualification round coming third behind Manchester and Sheffield.

British Champions Cup

The Liverpool Lizards have qualified for the revised Champions Cup competition and will travel to Coventry later in May to play against Coventry in the semi-finals. If they win they will play the winner of the other semi-final between Manchester and Otter. The overall winner will qualify to play in the LEN trophy in Europe.

England Juniors

Last weekend saw Hannah Pyper, Hannah Giles and Amelie Cornell travel to the Czech Republic to play for England and Great Britain against, South Africa, Lithuania, Ireland and the Czech Republic.

Liverpool & District League

The Liverpool men's team has continued to have a successful season with wins against Port Sunlight, Bridgefield u19s and Chester.

M6 League

This new water polo league is now up and running and will involve matches for men, women, and juniors.

Junior Sessions

A mixed boys and girls Liverpool u11 team will be playing in a SNW minipolo festival later in May at the Aquatic Centre.
